

THE BULLETIN.

Publication Office, Bulletin Building
Washington Avenue.

FOR SALE.—The Radical wigwag is for sale.

COMING.—Dressed poultry is coming in abundance.

DRUGS.—P. G. Schuh has received a large invoice of drugs, etc.

PLAYED OUT.—There has not been a case in the police court since the election.

IN ABUNDANCE.—Citizens can find wild game in abundance at Yocum's, on the levee.

TRUE.—That the colored troops of Cairo fought nobly and otherwise last Tuesday.

FISH MARKET.—Jack Winter has established a regular fish market. He keeps all kinds of salt water fish.

TWO.—Two locomotives and tenders for the Texas and Pacific railroad are on a barge at the wharf in this city.

ABOUT COMPLETED.—The Arab engine house is about completed. It will, when finished, be a handsome building.

GONE.—The Greeley man has gone away from the city on a brief visit to friends near the head waters of Salt river.

AWAY.—Nearly all the attorneys are away from the city, attending court at the first high ground above us on the Ohio.

UNLOADED.—Thirty-five cars containing produce and grain for this city and points South were unloaded here yesterday.

CROWDED OUT.—The telegrams have crowded out editorial and river for several days. We shall get into working order in a few days.

MISSION SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The M. E. Mission Sunday school meets Sunday morning at 9 a.m., at the court-house. No preaching next Sunday.

WANTS KA.—John Barton telegraphs to us that he wants all our rooster cuts, sick and standing. Well, we have little use for such vanities now.

POSTPONEMENT.—On account of the Grand Rally to-morrow night, Mrs. Crowther's concert has been postponed until Saturday evening.

FERRY MEETING.—The directors of the Cairo City Ferry company will meet at the office of the company on Monday, November 18, at 10 o'clock, a.m.

TALK.—Several citizens are talking about forming a stock company for the purpose of purchasing a block and erecting on it cottages for rent. A good idea.

ELECTION NEWS.—The news of the election in this part of the state came in very slowly. Massac county was carried for Grant by about 380 majority.

THE PARLOR CONCERT.—Our enterprising reporter failed to attend the concert at Judge Allen's last night, and therefore we can say nothing about it this morning.

A FACT.—Sol Smith Russell can produce more laughter, from a given number of people, in a given length of time, than any other living man, and, we may add, as much as any other dead man.

OF MONDAY.—Col. S. Staats Taylor, president of the Cairo City Ferry company, called a meeting of the directors of the company, to be at held its office, on Monday, 18th inst., at 10 o'clock a.m.

ABOUT TO REMOVE.—Several Democratic citizens propose to purchase lots in Fillmore City, opposite Cairo in Kentucky, and remove to that place. They don't like the complexion of this village, Patience, boys!

COUNTY CONTRACTS.—The county court advertises for bids to keep the paupers, to furnish medicine, to furnish coffins, (but not for the Democratic leaders of Cairo), to publish the proceedings of the court, etc.

GOOSE ISLAND.—In this precinct Jack Hodges accomplished a good deal for Naup, but Irvin was too heavy for the combination in Clearcreek and Hazelwood. Ham is popular in the Republican precincts, and yet he is square on the issues.

HATS.—White hats are held at at heavy discount with little or no demand. The virtuous Arnold is the only reformer who clings with tenacity to the white hat of the lost cause. It is presumed he does so because he is now connected with THE BULLETIN, and is too impetuous to buy another. Oberly gave his to a colored friend, and it has since become as dark as the owner's face.

FOR SALE CHEAP FOR CASH.—The valuable residence property, known as the "Rankin Property," situated between 15th and 16th streets, is offered for sale cheap, for cash. This fine property consists of four good lots, with three dwellings. All in excellent order. Inquire of GEORGE FISHER, at the Custom House.

BUILDING ENTERPRISE.—Mrs. Wm. White is building a large two-story frame house, two tenements, on 15th street between Washington and Walnut streets, on the lots sold by Garland at auction.

—C. Close is putting up a handsome brick residence on Walnut street, opposite St. Joseph's church.

—Bradley's church, (colored), on Fifteenth street is about completed.

CONGRESSIONAL.—The 'Sun' gives the following as the majorities in this congressional district.

For Clements.

Jackson county, 400; Perry county, 200; Johnson county, 600; Polk county, 347; Alexander county, 200; Massac county, estimated, 200; Pope county, estimated, 500. Total 2,447.

For Wall.

Union county, 800; Williamson county, 200; Randolph county, estimated, 250; 1,250.

from Anna, dated 5:30 p.m., that the Wall's majority is 920.

FREE.—Our friend, Theobald, purchased yesterday lot seven block forty-seven—the lot next to Kean's new building on the corner of Washington and Avenue and Twelfth street—for $600, and proposes to immediately commence the erection on it of a brick building. Fred is one of the builders-up of Cairo, a driving citizen who has confidence in the future of the "Metropolis of Egypt."

PERSONAL.—Capt. Wm. P. Halliday is at St. John.

—It is rumored that Mr. John Q. Harman will remove to Chicago.

—Mr. P. Saup, late Radical Independent candidate for sheriff in this county, proposes a visit to Zanesville, Ohio, and will leave in a few days. A little recreation after the toils of the late canvass will be a treat.

—C. J. Holt, paymaster of the Mississippi, Ouchita and Red River railroad; C. F. Luebke, king saw mill man of St. Louis; J. H. Eckert of Cincinnati; Thos. and J. E. Croall of Boston, Massachusetts, owners of the walnut mill in this city; Dr. T. J. Edwards of Union City, Tennessee; Capt. Pat. York of St. Louis, are at the St. Charles.

Nonny denies that if you would have oysters by the plate, stewed, fried, roasted raw or on the half-shell, by the dozen, can or barrel, there is only one place in the city where you can get the freshest, juiciest and best. That place by common consent is the Thalia Oyster saloon, at the corner of Twelfth street and Washington avenue, and, while there, if you should chance to call for a glass of St. Louis lager; a glass of wine, native or foreign, or something of a stronger kind, your own good taste will testify that Jaeschel keeps the best. Then go to the Thalia, call for what you want to eat or drink, and if you are not more than satisfied, everybody will say that you must charge your dissatisfaction to your own depraved taste.

THAT EAGLE.—The 'Sun' flew its eagle on Wednesday evening. The 'E' thinks it is happy. Well, we love Davis, and hope his luminary may grow brighter day after day. He has done a great deal of hard work for his party, and deserves its support. If he had not labored—and labored, too, when effort was most difficult, because of embarrassments of which the outside world can know nothing—the Radicals could not have carried Alexander county. If, therefore, President Grant, who can scarcely refuse anything to us, his only great supporter in Southern Illinois, would give Mr. Davis Col. McKenig's place in the post-office in this city, we would be exceedingly happy, and we would bring out our eagle. We know we have but to suggest this arrangement to the colonel. He would, we are sure, immediately retire from his office and allow the not appreciated Davis to step into it.
